385 kilos cocaine seized on I-10

BY ELLIS CUEVAS

An alert Mississippi Law Enforcement Officer with the State Tax Commission (Truck Scales officer) led to the confiscation of 385 kilos of cocaine early Wednesday.

Hancock County Sheriff Ronald Peterson, at a joint news conference, estimated the value of the cocaine to be between $16,848,000 and $30,000,000.

Two Florida residents are lodged in the Hancock County Justice Criminal Facility with bonds of $5 million each.

Charles Scrimshire, Tax

Commission officer recognized the suspected 18-wheeler with the East bound scales tag about 12:30 a.m. on I-10 as possibly being sought nationwide.

The scales operator immediately summoned the Hancock County sheriff's dispatcher who notified the highway patrol and deputy sheriffs on duty.

State Trooper Houston Dorr, upon arrival, and the troopers talked to the two truckers and received permission to search the vehicle. Hancock deputies Albert Biehl and Don Watson arrived at the scene to lend assistance.

The trailer was carrying a cargo of sacks of potatoes and yellow onions.

Peterson listed the names of the truck's occupants as:

Hancock: Baldemar, 44, 670

11, 68th St., Hialeah, Fla., and Marion E. Pardon, 44, 1958 W.

32nd Place, Miami, Fla.

The two men were held before Hancock County Justice

Court Judge Joseph Peterson for an initial appearance and bond was set before the new conference.

School boards join forces pursuing unified system

BY D.C. HARVILL

The Bay St. Louis-Waveland and Hancock County School Boards joined forces Tuesday night in what might be the first step toward altering the face of education for all students in the county.

The two boards, along with their superintendents and attorneys met in the Bay Senior High library to discuss the possibility of consolidating the two school systems and operating one comprehensive high school.

Prior to the meeting, the boards had established an ad hoc committee to discuss consolidation that need to be answered before they can proceed in that direction.

"In a county this small, it doesn't make any sense to me to have two school districts," Bay Waveland board member Charles B. Benvenuti said.

Both boards seemed to agree that consolidations would not save a considerable amount of money, but would reduce duplication of effort and allow for streamlining of functions such as administration, purchasing, and health services.

"To improve the overall education of both systems, we believe our first consideration we should consider money second," county board president Frank Miller said.

"With the tax base of the two school districts we can accomplish great educational facilities if we have ninth through 12th grade at the school we will have 1,034 students with a $141 million tax base. Biloxi has 1,500 students with a $147 million tax base. Waveland has a $64 million tax base with 1,843 students," said County Superintendent of Education Terrell Randolph.

The county system currently has approximately $6.5 million in improvement funds with which it intends to build a new junior-senior high school. The Bay Waveland district has approximately $2.6 million in bond money which had been levied for an auditorium, band hall and music center.

Randolph said he would like to continue the talks and move toward a unified school system to be accomplished in two to three months, but total consolidation would take a year or more.

TAGGING EVIDENCE—Mississippi Bureau of Narcotics Lt. Steve Campbell, right, and State Trooper Houston Dorr count and tag boxes of cocaine seized in an early bust Wednesday of a 18-wheeler containing 385 kilos valued at from $16,848,000 to $30,000,000 by officials. A flashlight is being held by Hancock Sheriff Ronald Peterson, top left, and Patrol Sergeant Curtis Newman, kneeling, holds another flashlight in background. The bust was a joint effort by the Highway Patrol, U.S. Customs, Mississippi Bureau of Narcotics, Drug Enforcement Agents, Mississippi Tax Commission Officers and the Hancock County sheriff's office. Cowand, Seymour win, special council election remains open question

BY DENA BISNETTE

Due to the results of the runoff elections for Beat Three and Beat Four supervisor, the City of Bay St. Louis is faced with the possibility of a special election to fill two city council seats.

Councilman-at-large Wilmer Seymour took the Beat Four seat with 643 votes, beating former councilman Harry Farve who received 446 votes; while Ward One Councilman Lisa LeBon Cowand received 1,181 votes to beat her opponent, Hancock County Recreation Director Hilda Bourg, who received 789 votes.

Board of Supervisor Attorney Gerald Gex stated that the two supervisors-elect can take office as soon as they are certified and bonded.

Betsy Nolan of the Hancock County Election Commission said votes were scheduled to be certified late Wednesday afternoon, and Chancery Clerk E. Michael Necaise has already prepared the bond applications.

City Council Attorney John Scafide Jr. said that at this point he has not been asked to find out if Cowand and Seymour can continue serving as both councilmen and supervisors until after Jan. 1, but the answer is probably no.

The Jan. 1 date is important because if either or both choose to resign prior to that date, a special election will be necessary. If the resignation is after Jan. 1, less than six months will be left in the terms, which end June 30.

Bay St. Louis Mayor Victor Franckiewicz Jr. explained that if such an election is necessary, it will cost $3,000 to $5,000 depending on whether a run-off is included. It would be set for some time in January.

When a county official dies or resigns with less than six months in his term, the board of supervisors may appoint a replacement, but if there is more than six months the appointee serves on an interim basis only and a special election is set along with the next regular election or for November, whichever comes first.

The stipulations on the length of time remaining in the term is the same for city councils, but cities are not bound by the law that sets county special elections in November, Franckiewicz said.

"I have mixed feelings about this. We are losing some good council people but we will be glad to be working with them on the board of supervisors," the mayor commented, adding that he and City Clerk Edward Favre were still researching the special election matter on Wednesday and that no decisions have been made at this time.

On Wednesday morning, the three remaining supervisors conducted an informal orientation session for the two supervisors-elect, Beat One Supervisor Robert Peterson said, explaining that additional sessions would be necessary to bring Seymour and Cowand, who attends most board meetings anyway, up to date on county projects and other matters.

Nolan stated that the turnout for Tuesday's run-off was better than expected in several precincts. She had already predicted a large turnout in some of the city precincts, but found better than expected in Crane Creek and Standard.

"People up there had kind of indicated that they were disappointed no one from those areas was in the run-off, but they turned out anyway," she said.

Cowand to become county's second female supervisor

BY DENA BISNETTE

Beat Three Supervisor Letitia Cowand will be Hancock County's second elected female supervisor when the rates of office.

The last woman elected to the position was Mary Frances Bowden, who served more than 30 years.

In her case, however, she did not run for the position, but was appointed by her husband, John Bowden, who died in 1986. He was a member of the enough experience to have been reelected since her previous election in 1955, which was in August of 1955.

Cowand was born in 1932 and has lived in Hancock County since 1940.

The Blue Ribbon Commission on Public Trust Tidelands appointed by Secretary of State Dick Molpus in June has adopted an interim report addressing the issues of Boundary, Conservation and Development, Lease Program Management, Littoral/Riparian Rights and Taxation. Prior to finalizing the proposed report to the Secretary of State, the Commission will seek the public's opinion concerning the report by conducting hearings in each of the coastal counties.

Public hearings are scheduled for November 29 at Bay Junior High School Auditorium in Bay St. Louis; November 30 at Jackson-George Regional Library in Pascagoula and December 1 at the Westside Community Center in Gulfport. All hearings are from 7 to 9 p.m.

The public is encouraged to review the interim report which is available for inspection at the Chancery Clerks' offices in Bay St. Louis, Biloxi, Gulfport and Pascagoula and at public libraries across the Coast. Any person or organization who wishes may obtain a single copy of the interim report free of charge by calling the Commission office at 864-0254 or writing to P.O. Box 97, Gulfport, MS 39502. Additional copies of the report cost $4.20 each.

As time will be limited, participants at the public hearings are invited to supplement their remarks by submitting written statements, if necessary.

GE Plastics restructuring Port Bienville Park plant

GE Plastics, which recently acquired the Baymar Plant from Borg-Warner Chemicals, has announced restructuring plans for the operation of that facility in the Port Bienville Industrial Park. The announcement was made Monday.

The restructuring plans include the shutdown of the PPE Resin Operation. Expansion opportunities including compounding facilities for the plant's San Plastic Resins, and new resins for the PPE facility, will be firm up over the next 3 to 6 months according to plant manager Ralph Rice.

As a result of the shutdown of the plant's PPE resin line, 28 nonexempt employees will be reassigned in other plant operations. No nonexempt GE employees will be laid off as a result of this restructuring.

The impact on exempt employees is expected to be minimal, according to Rice, several exempt employees being transferred to other GE Plastics locations. There will be a decreased need for contract maintenance employees beginning in 1989.

"GE Plastics remains committed to the Baymar Plant's future growth and investment to produce a broader line of plastics product, utilizing the talented work force of the current plant personnel," stated Rice.

Cocaine.....

Crawling through the truck over the cargo, Dorr spotted several boxes covered with the potatoes and onions near the center of the trailer, Peterson said.

Lt. Col. Billie Hughes, assistant chief of the Highway Patrol stated, "The alertness of Officer Scrimshire made this bust possible. This was a joint operation between the Highway Patrol, U.S. Customs, Mississippi Bureau of Narcotics, Drug Enforcement Agents, Mississippi Tax Commission officers and Hancock County sheriff's officers."

"This was the best cooperation between agencies I have ever seen in a case," Hughes added. Highway Patrol Major Mickey Ladner, Bureau of Narcotics Lt. Steve Campbell, District Tax Commission Lt. Ray Ladner and Sheriff Peterson all echoed Hughes' sentiments.

Lt. Ladner reported his department had received information to be on the lookout for a specific truck because the occupants were considered armed and dangerous.

"We issued orders for our officers to be very careful and fortunately the occupants of the truck did not have any weapons," Lt. Ladner allowed.

All officers were praising Scrimshire, as he had received the information on the wanted truck from the scales operator he had relieved earlier.

Major Ladner said, an inventory of the catch revealed there were 15 cardboard boxes containing 24 kilos each and one box containing 25 kilos.

This was reportedly the third largest cocaine bust in Mississippi's history.

The 18-wheeler was towed by Mike Pernicaro Wrecker Service to the Hancock County Criminal Justice Facility where officers and trustees began unloading the potatoes and onions before daybreak.

A large number of sacks were unloaded before officers were able to begin inventory of the amount of cocaine in the trailer.

The cocaine was then placed in the sheriff's evidence locker and removed for a 9 a.m. news conference and later transported to a Drug Enforcement Agency lab in Texas for final analyzing.

Peterson reported the cocaine was field tested by Drug Enforcement Agents and also by Mississippi Bureau of Narcotics officers before unloading.

A visual search was conducted on the 18-wheeler by officers and several different truck signs were found in the cabin.

Peterson indicated a more thorough search of the tractor and trailer will be conducted by officials.

Wednesday afternoon Peterson said the case was still being investigated by officials and the Criminal Investigator Glen Strong was in charge of the Hancock investigation. No information was given as to the original origin of the truck.

Peterson did say the NCIC alert was issued within 48 hours prior to the bust from Miami, Fla.

A U.S. Federal Magistrate issued an order authorizing Sheriff Peterson to disburse the onions and potatoes to non-profit organizations.

A supply of the onions and potatoes will be used at the jail for inmates Peterson said.

City attorney Lucien Gex, however, said he did not know whether their bond money, which had been levied for specific improvement projects, could be diverted to another system after one of the two systems was abolished.

Several participants said they would rather the final decision on consolidation be made by the voters of the county.

The attorneys, however, said there is not a statute in the law providing for such an election.

"The statute doesn't call for an election unless 20 percent of the electorate calls for one," county attorney Joseph Gex said.

The boards agreed to further pursue the issues at their separate meetings and to each develop a model of how the consolidated system would operate.

Each board directed its attorney to determine whether each system's bond money could be diverted to a new system and to gather information on the various types of school districts which could be created if the consolidation takes place.

Keith Ladner of Terry Ladner's Seafood at Bayou Cadet was arrested last Thursday after officers discovered 51 sacks of oysters in the hold of his boat and another 10 on deck, according to BMR Law Enforcement Supervisor Henry Boudreaux.

The legal limit for oysters is 10 sacks when taken by dredge and six sacks when collected by tonging.

Boudreaux said officers stopped Ladner on Square Handkerchief Reef off Henderson Point. He faces a maximum fine of $500 if convicted. The oysters were returned to the water on the reef.

On Friday, Randy Ladner, also with Terry Ladner's Seafood, was arrested and charged with oystering at night after another fisherman signed an affidavit claiming that he witnessed Ladner taking oysters off Square Handkerchief before legal hours.

He had 29 sacks of oysters aboard his boat when arrested.

The maximum penalty for oystering at night is $10,000 or a year's jail sentence.

According to Boudreaux, the two Ladners are related.

QUOTABLE QUOTES"

By Ellis C. Cuevas

I was shocked on Saturday when I saw the palm trees cut down on Carroll Avenue between the sidewalk and road.

Apparently these palm trees were on city property and were removed without approval from the city, as I spoke to Mayor Victor Franckiewicz about the palms being taken down and he said he knew nothing about it.

Several folks whom I have spoken to were unhappy to hear about the palm trees being destroyed.

The time has come for the city of Bay St. Louis and also Waveland to put ordinances into place, if not already on the books, to protect our trees.

There are many very old trees of different types in our city and since many are destroyed by nature, primarily hurricanes, we need to protect as many as possible.

As you know we have only a few palm trees as they are not really native to our area, but add to the beauty of our communities.

Wednesday started out very early for me, as a matter of a fact, before 5 a.m., I received a telephone call.

The matter I was called on was an 18-wheeler with a cargo of onions and potatoes with several extra boxes containing cocaine.

It was very good to see so many law enforcement agencies working so closely together on this bust which is reported to be the third largest in the history of the State of Mississippi.

Of course, the majority of the officers had already been on the job from around midnight and were still going strong late in the morning.

There are many times when law officers work around the clock on cases and when one figures their salary, it comes to a low figure on an hourly basis.

I would like to commend all the officers for the professional way they worked together on the bust.

New departments created in government reorganization

After decades of study, Mississippi is poised to reorganize and streamline state government in a way that could help unleash the great potential of our state.

Recently, I unveiled recommendations that put state agencies with similar responsibilities under 11 departments. This would save an estimated $31.9 million. House and Senate committees also are looking closely at reorganization—an idea whose time has clearly come.

This year alone, a special study committee conducted more than 1,000 interviews, put in more than 6,000 man-hours of work and held 10 public hearings on the subject of state government reorganization.

It found that the executive branch of state government is just not working the way it should. There is little planning, little accountability and little direction.

State government is lurching along, year by year, without a plan or a vision of where it ought to go.

In fact, the same findings have been made in studies going back 50 years.

Thanksgiving

Count your blessings instead of your crosses.
Count your gains instead of your losses.
Count your joys instead of your woes.
Count your friends instead of your foes.
Count your smiles instead of your tears.
Count your courage instead of your fears.
Count your full years instead of your lean.
Count your kind deeds instead of your mean.
Count your health instead of your wealth.
Count on God instead of yourself.

A thankful heart doubles our blessings causing us to enjoy them twice—when we receive them and when we remember them.

The President's Column

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

Count peace as our greatest Thanksgiving Day blessing

Over 350 years ago a small band of Pilgrims—after gathering in their first harvest at Plymouth colony—invited their friends and neighbors, who were Indians, to join them in a feast of thanksgiving. Together they sat around their bountiful tables and bowed their heads in gratitude to the Lord for all He had bestowed upon them.

So many years later, we, too, gather with family and friends, and after saying grace, carve up a turkey, pass around the cranberries and dressing, and later share slices of pumpkin pie.

We Americans have so much for which to be thankful. Think of the great expanse of our nation—the rolling hills of our immense farmland. Even in years of drought, as this year has been, the plows and the sweat of America's farmers call forth from our good earth more food than we can possibly eat—so much food that, taken together, our harvests of wheat, corn, soybeans, fruits, vegetables, and all the other bounty of our land make up one of our most important exports. Not only we but the entire world can be thankful for that. Millions of children across all the continents are happier, healthier and stronger because of America's farmers.

Now think of our manufacturing centers. After almost a decade of hard, often painful work, cultivating our industrial fields to meet a whole new generation of world competition, this year we can see the first harvest of that work. Almost every American industry is zipping along at near full capacity. A few years ago journalists were calling the Midwest "The Rust Belt." Now, "The Boom Belt" would be more like it.

From Lehigh Valley in eastern Pennsylvania to Dayton and Detroit and beyond, the factory whistles again sound in the old factory towns, and we hope they will blow soon where they now do not. By the way, often those whistles are at the plants of entirely new companies providing new products and services to the nation and to the world.

In the past year, America added 428,000 new manufacturing jobs. And when it comes to world competition no one can stop us now. And that is not the only good news. According to one of the foremost authorities in manufacturing, Peter Drucker, the old myth about low wages and low manufacturing costs may be dead for good.

In this age of high-technology factories, highly paid skilled workers—America's kind of workers—produce so efficiently that no one can touch them. That is why it is gratifying, but not surprising, to find out that America's manufacturing productivity has grown at one-and-a-half times the postwar average during our expansion. And that is why this year, even as European and Japanese manufacturing employment has stagnated, our manufacturing employment has increased.

But prosperity is not an end in itself. It helps us pay attention to the more important things—raising our children as we want them to be raised, helping others in need, and bringing nations together in peace. Recently, world peace has been very much on my mind. Here in Washington, we have received visits from two of America's friends, Britain's Prime Minister Margaret Thatcher and Germany's Chancellor Helmut Kohl.

In our meetings, these two great leaders and I talked about the prosperity that all the nations of the industrial world enjoy and about the cuts in taxes and the return to the principles of the free market that have made it possible. And we talked about the success over the past eight years of our policy of peace through strength. Yes, peace is another thing for which we can say a prayer of gratitude over the dinner table on Thursday.

Peace and abundance in this land that God has kissed: We will give thanks for these, and one thing more—our freedom. Yes, America, freedom seems like the air around us. It is there. It is sweet, though we rarely give it a thought. Yet as the air fills our lungs, freedom fills our souls. It gives breath to our laughter and joy. It gives voice to our songs. It gives us strength as we race for our dreams.

Think of those around the world who cannot bow their heads in prayer without risking their lives. Think of those countries where to write an honest word or even to own a child's simple toy printing press is a crime. Think of how many countries where to dream of striking out on your own and starting a business is to take a chance, not on a better life for yourself and your children, but on a long stay in a prison cell. And then think of how blessed we are to be Americans.

Yes, as we gather together this Thanksgiving to ask the Lord's blessings, as we, of whatever faith we are, give praises to His name, let us thank Him for our peace, prosperity and freedom.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Help foster children have Merry Christmas

To the Editor:

There are more than 55 foster children in Hancock County who need your help this Christmas. It appears as though there may not be any state funds for Christmas this year.

These children are residents of Hancock County whom the Youth Court has removed from their own homes because they were abused, neglected, or found to be in need of special care. They have been placed with licensed foster parents or with relatives.

These children deserve to have a good Christmas as any other child, and you can make if possible.

Please make your tax deductible donations to the Foster Children's Fund, Hancock County Welfare Department, P.O. Box 2069, Bay St. Louis, MS 39521. You may call 467-4100 or 467-4565 and speak to any social worker if you need additional information or if you can help these children in any other way.

We thank you in advance for your help.

Sincerely,
Celeste Proulx

School consolidation a step in right direction

Dear Editor:

I was delighted to read in the paper that the boards representing the Bay-Waveland and the Hancock County school systems are exploring the possibility of consolidation. I view this as one more instance of true progress for our schools. We can no longer afford the luxury of the tax dollars necessary to operate two separate systems for so relatively few students. Seeing the articles prompted me to write this letter.

Earlier this year I was asked by Dr. Roger Oge, superintendent of the Bay-Waveland School System, to serve on a joint committee of faculty and citizens to explore and then establish short and long term objectives toward which the schools might strive.

My own list of goals included, among other things, consolidation, an art department, and an expanded curriculum, as well as assistance to college-bound students. Under the aegis of Dr. Oge consolidation is being seriously considered, the junior and senior high schools have an outstanding art teacher, scholarship monies awarded have increased dramatically, and standardized test scores are steadily improving.

I commend the school board for the wisdom they showed in hiring as superintendent of schools a truly academically qualified educator to replace retiring Superintendent McCullough. Dr. Oge has repeatedly shown his ability to work toward these and other worthy goals.

My own vision for our schools is to see every student achieve personal excellence. It is the obligation of the school board, the administration, faculty, parents, and citizens of the community to work together to help our young people realize this goal.

I hope that all of us will continue to make our decisions concerning the operation of our school system based on principles and performance rather than individual bias. Whenever personal desires and points of view are set aside for the greater good of all the students, true progress can be achieved.

I believe that a community is never any stronger than its public school system. Hopefully in the future our children will honor us for the decisions we make today concerning the administration and operation of their schools.

Very truly yours,
Carol P. Vegas

STOLEN PROPERTY RECOVERED

Additional suspects are being sought in a case that has already resulted in one arrest and recovery of about $50,000 in stolen vehicles and boats.

Hancock County Sheriff's Department Investigator Nathan Hoda said a telephone call to Sheriff Ronald Peterson resulted in the arrest of James Espy Leger, 49, of Shoreline Park, who at the present stage of the investigation has been charged with three counts of receiving stolen property.

Hoda said the anonymous tip to the sheriff indicated that a leased lot in Standard Community and a lot in a wooded area off Manhattan Street in Shoreline Park were being used to store stolen items.

Eight vehicles, mostly Ford pick-up trucks, have been recovered, along with two Jeep International Scouts, two four-wheelers, a travel trailer, a self-contained camper and a motor home.

Also recovered were six boats, including a new bass boat that had been stolen in Pascagoula.

Hoda said the areas where the rest of the items were taken included most of the Mississippi Gulf Coast and part of the Louisiana coast.

"Everything had altered numbers," Hoda said. "They were taking the identification plates off junk cars and putting them on stolen property that they were selling."

In addition to changing the identification plates, the license tags had been switched.

The vehicles ranged from 1968 models to 1980 models, but were all in good condition. The suspect was living in the travel trailer, the investigator said.

Everything recovered so far had been stolen during September and October, said Mississippi Highway Patrol Investigator Curtis Newman, who is working with Hoda on the investigation.

The vehicles have been stored at N.A. Perniciaro's wrecker yard and are being returned to the owners as they are located and notified.

More items, such as the boat trailer, motor and accessories from the bass boat, are expected to be recovered, Hoda added.

Anyone missing a boat or vehicle believed stolen during the last three months or who may have additional information about the case should call Hoda at 467-5101 or Newman at 864-1314.

Assisting in the recovery of the boats were Terry Baker and Stanley Hamilton of Bureau of Marine Resources. Assisting in the arrests and recovery of the vehicles were deputies George Burleson, Matt Karl, Bobby Necaise, James Ladner and Peter Marchetta.

CRAB TRAP THEFT

A Perkinston man has been arrested and charged with grand larceny and receiving stolen property in connection with stolen crab traps.

Hancock County Sheriff's Department Investigator Delbert Seay said Chester A. Prestenback, Route Two, Box 180, Perkinston, was charged with grand larceny in the theft of some of the traps and receiving stolen property in connection with the others.

Seay stated that the matter is still under investigation and other charges are pending.

GRAND LARCENY

A Bay St. Louis man has been charged with grand larceny recovered in the grand larceny of his girlfriend's house.

Bay St. Louis Police Department Detective Tom Burleson said that other charges are pending against David K. Arel, 31, of 126 Ulman Avenue, because some television cable boxes belonging to Multivision Cable were recovered along with the other property.

Arel was arrested at 12:41 a.m. Sunday.

The property taken in the grand larceny included a console television set, a microwave oven, a dinette table, four chairs and a 1978 Mazda. The items were recovered, along with the cable boxes, at Bubba's Lounge on Highway 49 in Gulfport, Burleson said.

Bond on Arel was set at $5,000.

Assisting in the arrest were Bay Police Officers Gus Aime, Robert Lee and Richard Jackson. Burleson and Don Osco are in charge of the investigation.

Good food buys

Be careful in handling holiday foods

Whether you're cooking holiday turkey for hundreds of people in a restaurant or school or for a small family at home, the same rules apply for the safe handling of poultry or meat.

Following a few simple rules can keep illness from spoiling the holiday spirit.

As a starting point, we must realize that the inspection mark for wholesomeness means that the meat or poultry came from healthy animals and was inspected throughout the packing operation. However, the inspection mark only helps assure the wholesomeness when the poultry or meat leaves the packing plant.

All foods, including meat and poultry, contain some bacteria. The inspection mark means that the product is wholesome, not that it is germ free. Few, if any, foods are germ free.

Proper handling and cooking, however, will keep these microorganisms at safe levels.

No matter the amount of meat or poultry you're buying, it should come from well refrigerated display cases and be in packages that are not torn or damaged. Once you buy it, get it to the refrigerator quickly.

Storage after arriving in the institution or your home is equally important. If you plan to be using it in a few days store the meat or poultry in the coldest part of the refrigerator in its original wrappings.

For long term freezing, tightly wrap the meat or poultry in moisture resistant material such as aluminum foil or freezer paper.

Until the cooking day arrives, keep the food refrigerated.

Ideally, you should defrost the frozen meat or poultry in the refrigerator. Or you may also defrost it in container of cold water if you leave it in its watertight wrapper.

Careful thawing procedures are especially important for poultry.

If you must thaw the bird at room temperature, keep its surface cool during thawing. You can do this by placing the bird, still in its original wrapper, in a

For this reason use soap and water or a cleanser which kills bacteria, on surfaces on which cooked product.

Don't take lightly the actual cooking of the meat or poultry. Cook poultry completely at one time. Never leave it partially cooked to be finished later.

It's safest to cook dressing outside the bird. But if you do want to cook the dressing inside the bird, stuff it just before roasting.

The internal temperature of the bird is the proper test for sufficient cooking. Cook turkey to an internal temperature of 180 to 185 degrees. The stuffing inside the turkey should reach 165 degrees.

Cover leftovers tightly and refrigerate or freeze promptly. Whenever possible, place large quantities in several small containers rather than one large one to speed cooling.

Store the meat or poultry, any stuffing, and the broth or gravy in the refrigerator in separate containers.

Happy Thanksgiving to all!
And, after the celebrating is over, and you've eaten your fill of the Thanksgiving turkey, thoughts will turn, of course, to ways to use up the leftovers, won't they?

Is there anything more delicious than a turkey sandwich on Thanksgiving night, piled high with oyster dressing and cranberry sauce? That's one of my favorites.

Of course, there's turkey a la king, creamy and rich, and turkey hash and such, but an elegant and easy way to say bye-bye birdie to the holiday turkey is Turkey Divan, a luscious blending of turkey slices or pieces, with broccoli, in a creamy-cheesy-winey-spicy-crumbly overcoat.

For many years, broccoli was a far from fashionable and widely accepted vegetable, belonging as it does to the odiferous cabbage family. Then one day, I suppose, some chef or other noticed that it tasted quite good with chicken or turkey, and another day a harried cook perhaps found little in the larder except some cooked turkey and some broccoli, when unexpected guests arrived on the scene. From situations such as these many a great dish is born! The secret's in the sauce, laced with splashes of brandy or sherry, and in the way all the flavors blend together so well.

This is an excellent dish for a buffet supper, and an easy-on-the-cook one also, as it can be put together well ahead of time.
Here's:

TURKEY DIVAN

2 bunches (or 2 pkgs frozen)
broccoli (briefly cooked)

Slices of turkey (or 2 cups of pieces)

½ cup butter or margarine

¼ cup flour

2 cups milk

2 Tbsp. grated cheese
(Parmesan)

Seasoned bread crumbs for topping

Generous dashes Worcestershire sauce, hot pepper
sauce, pepper, lemon juice, salt

Generous splashes (a jigger or so) brandy or sherry

First, make a cream sauce of the butter, flour and milk (melt butter a bit, add the flour, add milk gradually) stirring so as not to "lump" it all up - you know about that. Meanwhile, place broccoli in bottom of casserole dish, top with turkey slices or pieces.

Pour the sauce over, top with seasoned bread crumbs, and sprinkle cheese over all. Pop into a 350 degree oven for a half hour or a bit longer, if necessary, and serve with French bread and a green salad.

And, if you're in a lazy mood, or really pressed for time or whatever, just mix a can of cream of mushroom soup (or chicken) with a half cup of mayonnaise and a dash of lemon juice, season and pour over the turkey-and-broccoli in the dish, and top with crumbs and cheese

- and don't forget the spirits!

For extra tastiness, place under the broiler just before serving, for a good browned cheese crust. (Six servings.)

First we buy it at Jitney Jungle (5 pounds). Uncle David, Aunt Elsie or Maw Maw Ruth, or Paw Paw fixes it. Uncle David puts the shot in it. The shot is some kind of turkey medicine so it won't be raw. Stuff the turkey with 1 mushroom. Put baby pieces of bread and carrots in the turkey. Add 2 eggs with cauliflower. Cook it in the oven for 12 hours. It's ready when we go to Uncle Davis.

Billy Kenny

Carrot cake. She gets 2 carrots for ingredients. She adds eggs and mixes it up. She puts it in the oven for 88 hours. Take it out and eat it.

Chris Clayton

Put nothing in the turkey. We don't like anything in the turkey. Put in the oven for a milion hot.

Sarah Carter

First Mom puts it in the microwave then she cooks it in the oven for 30 seconds. That's all.

Richie Marinucci

Go to Morris Moms house. And eat regular turkey.

Zachary Hemphill

Put a large chicken inside the oven. Add stuffing inside the chicken. Put on 1 pound of rice and gravy. For dessert make colorful roosters out of eggs. Make birds out of apples. Cut a watermelon out and use colored fruits in it (Grapes and apples).

Michael Carter

Ingredients: 10 pound duck. Kill it first with a knife at the lake and then take the feather and then we cook but first we get the beak off we cook it in the oven a dead duck in the oven and then we take it out the oven (its ready in 2 minutes) and if its not cooked we put it in there for 3 minutes. Then it's finished. Then we eat the duck. Add turkey and cranberry sauce. Drink milk. This year we're cooking the duck at my aunt's house 10 miles away I think.

Stephen Ryan

Gumbo. She puts a couple shrimp and some meat, 2 oysters, couple potatoes, 3 carrots. She drop it in the gumbo. She cooks it by the frigirator I think its ready in 1 hour.

Daniel Guy

Thanksgiving. Sometimes I got to Aunt Bet and Hunks house. Aunt Bet cooks everything the best in Texas. She just cooks a turkey and mashed potatoes. Probably in 10 minutes.

Grayson Timidaiski

Well really me and my Dad goes hunting over the bridge. Kill the turkey with a 4-10 or a over and under gun. Then take feathers off maybe cut the head off, cut the gin off. (the turkey is may be about this big) my mom cooks it in the stove. I wait for everyone to come when its ready.

Evan Coote

Pumpkin Pie Sweet Tatatoes
Get a pumpkin (this big) from the pumpkin patch. She cuts it up. (50 lbs) She puts it in the pan. Add cookies on the side of it and one in the middle. Put it in the oven and when the bell rings that means its time to get it out and eat it.

Sweet Tatatoes. Pop 7 sweet tatatoes in the microwave and ther it ready 30 minutes.

Chris Blanchard

Chicken. My momma cooks the chicken in the kitchen. I don't what she does with it on the stove. Its ready when my sister plays with me.

Ashley Alford

Carrot cake. She gets 2 carrots for ingredients. She adds eggs and mixes it up. She puts it in the oven for 88 hours. Take it out and eat it.

Chris Clayton

Corn on the Cob and Chicken. She puts about 6 chickens in the stove. She puts the corn in the microwave. Then we eat it.

Jani Wadsworth

Pumpkin Pie. Have a pie then put pumpkin spray in the pan. She probable cooks it in the oven then you gotta eat it.

Jonah Dillenoffer

Mom gets it from the grocery store. Put salt and pepper inside of the turkey. put it in the oven take it out and eat it.

Kyle Hubbard

Put a large chicken inside the oven. Add stuffing inside the chicken. Put on 1 pound of rice and gravy. For dessert make colorful roosters out of eggs. Make birds out of apples. Cut a watermelon out and use colored fruits in it (Grapes and apples).

Holiday foods class to include recipes low in sugar, cholesterol

A holiday foods demonstration featuring nutritious holiday recipes low in sugar, sodium and cholesterol will be conducted at 9:30 a.m. Wednesday in the Coast Electric Crew Room.

Darlene Underwood, Hancock County Extension Home Economist, reports, "66 percent of all deaths in Mississippi are diet-related." Few of us can afford to indulge in high fat, high sodium foods in the face of such statistics."

Extension Homemakers are reminded that this program is November Leadership Training. County Homemaker's Council will be held immediately following the foods program.

Coast Electric's Crew Room is located on the west side of Main Street across from the main Coast Electric Power Association Building. Program participants are asked to enter the first gate and park in the north parking area.

For more information, call 467-5456. The program is free and is open to any interested individuals.

Carrot-Cheese Balls
 3 oz. Neufchatel cheese, softened
 ½ c. shredded cheddar cheese
 1 t. honey
 1 c. finely shredded carrot
 ½ to ¾ c. Grape Nuts cereal
 2 T. finely snipped parsley

In medium mixer bowl beat Neufchatel cheese, cheddar cheese and honey together until blended. Stir in shredded carrot. Cover and chill 30 minutes. Shape into fourteen 1-inch balls; cover and chill. Just before serving, roll balls in a mixture of cereal and parsley, pressing the cereal mixture into cheese to coat. Yield: 14 balls. 40 calories per ball.

Creamy Broccoli Casserole
 2 (10 oz.) pkgs. frozen cut broccoli
 ¼ c. chopped onion
 1 c. reconstituted nonfat dry milk
 1 T. cornstarch
 ½ t. salt
 ¼ t. dried thyme, crushed
 Dash pepper
 2 oz. Neufchatel cheese
 2 T. grated Parmesan cheese

Combine first seven ingredients in the order listed; blend well. Pour into pastry shell. Bake at 300 degrees for 45 minutes. Cool before serving. Yield: one 8-inch pie.

Refrigerator Bran Muffins
 2 c. ready-to-eat bran cereal
 2 c. boiling water
 1 c. shortening or margarine

DOWN HOME

By Darlene Underwood
 Hancock County
 Home Economist

Cook frozen broccoli according to package directions. Drain, reserving cooking liquid. Cook onion in reserved cooking liquid for 5 minutes or till tender. Do not drain. In screw-top jar combine milik, cornstarch, salt, thyme, and dash paprika. Stir into onion. Cook and stir till bubbly. Stir in Neufchatel cheese. Add broccoli. Gently stir to mix. Turn into serving bowl. Sprinkle Parmesan atop. Yield: 8 servings. 63 calories per serving (½ cup).

Chocolate Oatmeal Pie
 2 eggs, beaten
 ¼ c. butter or margarine, melted
 1 c. sugar
 ½ c. uncooked oats
 ¼ t. salt
 1 t. vanilla extract
 2 T. cocoa
 1 unbaked 8-inch pastry shell

1 ½ c. sugar
 4 eggs
 1 qt. buttermilk
 5 c. flour
 5 t. soda
 1 t. salt
 4 c. additional dry bran cereal
 Pour 2 cups boiling water over 2 cups ready-to-eat bran cereal. Set aside to cool. Cream together shortening, sugar and eggs in large mixing bowl. Add 1 quart buttermilk and soaked bran mixture and beat well.

Sift together flour, soda and salt. Add dry ingredients to creamed mixture and fold until flour is moistened. Then fold in 4 cups additional dry bran cereal.

Store better in covered containers in refrigerator. Keeps 3-4 weeks. When ready to bake, preheat oven to 400 degrees and fill well-greased muffin tins ½ full. Bake for 20 minutes. Yield: 4-5 dozen.

Year-long planning advised for Christmas budgeting

Budgeting well in advance for Christmas can eliminate overspending when the spirit of the holiday season outweighs practical financial judgement.

Beverly R. Howell, family economics and management specialist with the Mississippi Cooperative Extension Service, said Christmas budgeting should be a year-long process. In addition to gifts, other expenses should be considered, including decorations, travel, postage and food.

"The best way to pay for Christmas is to save for it," Howell said. "Compare interest rates carefully when selecting a savings account. There is no real advantage to a Christmas club account over other types of accounts, except that it is a forced savings."

"Studies show that people tend to spend more when financing Christmas with credit," Howell said.

The specialist said if most Christmas purchases will be charged on credit, select credit companies with lower annual percentage rates.

Increasing income by obtaining additional employment is an alternative to using savings or credit to pay Christmas bills, Howell said.

Smart shopping skills will benefit holiday budgeting. Howell recommends shopping early for wider selection and better chances for comparison shopping. Use consumer-oriented magazines for larger purchases to help select the best buys and features for individual needs.

"Make a shopping list and try to stick with it," she said. "Avoid impulse buying, which will run up your bills."

She said children should be included in the holiday shopping process. Use Christmas to help children learn how to budget and set priorities for spending.

"Children need to learn that there are limits on money and gifts," Howell said. "Avoid putting the family budget in a strain by overdoing the gift giving part of Christmas after Christmas."

"If getting gifts becomes the overall focus of the holiday season, we will be missing out on something," Howell said.

Reflections

Sell what you have

What would you do if you earned $1 million a year? But what would you do if you raked in $20 million or more in one year?

Michael Jackson earned a paltry $37 million in 1987 and a heftier $60 million in 1988, according to Forbes magazine. That put him slightly ahead of a needier Bill Cosby who came in at $92 million for the same period of 1987-88.

An eye-popping parade of other millionaires completed the top-10 list of wealthy entertainers in the magazine. If you wished to extend that list, you could do so almost indefinitely, so many super-rich and rich there are both in and out of entertainment.

The millionaires themselves, and perhaps a lot of other people, may consider it brazen, pretentious and/or self-righteous on our part to imply what they should be doing with their millions. By asking what we would do implies what they should be doing.

We are boldly questioning how the independently rich can "sit on" even $1 million, let alone many millions, without feeling terrible pangs of conscience about less fortunate sisters and brothers who have an urgent need of help.

Obviously, we are not coming out of the same bag. Not even all Christians come out of the same bag, although the challenge thrown out to us by Jesus leaves no doubt as to the Christian ideal:

"If you will be perfect, go, sell what you have, and give it to the poor, and you shall have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me" (Mt. 19: 21).

I think that it is safe to say that Jesus won't mind if we take his words with a grain of salt. Simply to give millions of dollars to the poor will solve little; in fact, may create many more problems than it solves. Witness the welfare quagmire.

Just as a Good Samaritan nowadays has to be very prudent and circumspect in order to avoid bodily harm and lawsuits, so must anyone who would give to the poor pause and reflect that it is better to teach the poor to fish than to give them free fish.

So what would you do with your millions? Would you put them in a high-interest savings account where they would work and guarantee you financial security against the worst possible scenarios of misfortune, loss, tragedy and sickness in life?

Or would you invest them in stocks and bonds with a less certain but more profitable return for your precious capital?

Does it actually take more than $1 million to assure millionaires of the financial security to which they cling? Or is the case simply that they are mesmerized by earning and storing ever more of what is precious, powerful and hard to come by?

When you total up all the charities and humanitarian ventures which many millions ares get into, you find that the case is exceedingly rare where a substantial portion of the rich person's wealth is committed, except around the time of death.

For the most part, by far most people of means are concerned about income tax breaks, not about a true parting with their means.

If you had millions, would you dare to be bold and imaginative enough to commit the lion's share of your wealth to needy institutions and individuals? Not as a giveaway, to be sure, but in the form of endowments, foundations and scholarships.

Those of us who do not have millions - that is, of course, most of us - still have the standing challenge of Jesus to keep only the things which we need for reasonable security, and to share the rest lovingly with our sisters and brothers everywhere.

ST. ANN CHURCH NEWS

A thought for meditation from our pastor Father Lambert Stack, ST.

Each of us comes into life with fists closed, set for aggressiveness and acquisition. But when we abandon life our hands are open; there is nothing on earth we need, nothing the soul can take with it.

-Fulton J. Scheen

Father Stack would like to extend his thanks and appreciation to all who contributed in any way to the success of last Saturday's Harvest Moon Dance held in the parish hall.

According to Father Stack, Saturday, Dec. 3 Confirmation classes will be at 3 p.m. in the parish hall. This is the last chance for those who have not registered. If they attend this coming Saturday they will be able to make their Confirmation with the 20 students who have been attending regularly.

Mass Thanksgiving Day will be 8:30 a.m., St. Ann Church, Clermont Harbor.

There will be no classes for CCD students this Saturday, Nov. 26 due to the Thanksgiving holidays.

St. Ann-St. John Altar Society will meet 10:30 a.m. in the parish hall this coming Wednesday, Nov. 30. It is an important meeting. The ladies will elect new officers to serve for the next two years.

Following immediately at 11 a.m. is the group's monthly luncheon and social. Luncheon chairlady Mrs. Mamie O'Quinn has announced she and her co-chairladies will be serving this month Baked Chicken, Baked Macaroni with Cheese Sauce and Green Peas. Donation is $2.50. Drinks and dessert will be available.

Immediately after lunch there will be an afternoon of games.

Gospel Singers of America host annual homecoming

The annual homecoming of Gospel Singers of America will be Saturday, Dec. 3 at 7 p.m. and Sunday, Dec. 4 from 10:30 a.m. until 3 p.m. at the home of G.S.A., 951 E. Scenic Drive, Pass Christian.

In addition to former students there will be many singing groups. Special guest Saturday night will be the Revived Quarter of Picayune. Also expected are the Driskell Family of Wilmar, Ala.; Bagley Quartet of Houma, La.; Robert Goff Singers of Theodore, Ala.; The Mason Sisters of Lucedale; Papa Family of Thibodeaux, La.; Halingshead Trio of Ellisville; and The Kellys of Waveland.

Special guest on Sunday will be the Mississippi Singers of Picayune.

Singing will be under the direction of Videt Polk, Baton Rouge, La., assisted by Marilyn P. Smith, Long Beach, and Tracy Burnett of Baton Rouge, La.

There will be no charge for either session, everyone is asked to bring a basket lunch on Sunday, so all can enjoy fellowship together at noon.

Goodwill Industries encourages self-sufficiency for handicapped

The mission of Goodwill Industries of South Mississippi is to improve the quality of life for people with disabilities, especially by providing them with jobs and job training. Goodwill provides these individuals with an opportunity to increase their self sufficiency and improve their self esteem through training and gainful employment.

Making a person independent or at least less reliant on welfare or disability assistance, helping an individual to achieve the self esteem that this brings, this is what Goodwill is all about.

Just as Goodwill is bringing self support to individuals, Goodwill strives to achieve the maximum degree of self support for itself as an organization. Striving for self support becomes a mutually reinforcing venture between individual and organization. Pressure for achieving goals and quotas, for balancing the bottom line, is beneficial by stretching the individual and organization to achieve their highest potential.

Goodwill Industries of South Mississippi began in 1973 as a branch of The Goodwill Industries of Mississippi based in Jackson and affiliated with rehabilitation facilities in the world.

It began through the efforts of community leaders and had as its first board president Paul White of Bay St. Louis. In June of 1974 Goodwill Industries of South Mississippi became an autonomous non-profit entity incorporated by the State of Mississippi.

The main plant and office building was located in downtown Gulfport on 13th Street.

A retail store was located there and one was located in Biloxi. A few years later another retail store was established in Bay St. Louis. Goodwill prospered over the years under the leadership of succeeding Board presidents Emile Fallo of Biloxi and Don Mason of Gulfport.

The need for expanded facilities was evident and Goodwill relocated to 31st Street in Gulfport early in 1981 with assistance of local officials, a substantial loan from the SBA, and renovation money from Gulfport Community Development.

In its new location, Goodwill had two buildings, a plant and office building and a retail store. On Aug. 29, 1981 a disastrous fire completely destroyed the plant and office building. The resulting efforts to recover from the tragedy comprise one of the finest hours of Goodwill's story.

With the hard work of Goodwill's board, local and national officials, the local community and many talents, there are many types of work that they could perform as a group. Also there are many jobs that employers these days would be glad to contract out. With Goodwill as the contracting business and people who are disabled as workers, much could be done for the disabled and the community.

In November of 1983 Mississippi Power Company offered Goodwill the opportunity to engage in just such a contract. Workers at Goodwill would sort, process and boil scrap wire. After money realized could be turned over to Goodwill for the cost of processing and generate some extra return for the power company.

Admittedly, this was not a major project for Mississippi Power nor could it contribute much for them in the financial realm, but it was a good opportunity for Goodwill and the power company wanted to help Goodwill. The project was started and has been quite successful. The contract gradually increased in size to include the whole of Mississippi Power's territory and in scope as Goodwill has begun to recycle some items from the power company.

Soon to follow will be contracts with South Central Bell, ERIC, and other companies. There seems to be no limit to the optimum for future development in all of these areas. These contracts will provide jobs for the disabled, and enable the companies to procure needed service.

One of the brightest areas of Goodwill's horizon is the possibility of obtaining contracts with the Federal Government. Since early 1983 Goodwill has worked together with NISH (National Institute for the Severely Disabled) in order to obtain federal contracts. Although unsuccessful in obtaining a Mail Room contract at NISTL and a Commissary contract at the Seabee Base, Goodwill learned much about the contracting process and has developed knowledge and contacts which will facilitate obtaining contracts in the future.

In all of its efforts to improve the quality of life for people with disabilities, Goodwill is assisted by the United Way of Hancock and Harrison counties. Without the funds provided by the United Way, Goodwill could not achieve its present level of service to people with disabilities.

BAY RETAIL OUTLET—A retail store is operated by Goodwill Industries in the Bay Mall, Highway 90 and Dunbar Avenue in Bay St. Louis. Irene Laneaux, left, and Paul Shubert, both of Bay St. Louis, fold and sort clothing as two of the store's part time employees. The local outlet is open six days a week, 8:30-4:30. Manager is Angie Morreale. (Photo by Janet McQueen)

Duffie, Van Peski win DAR Americanism medals

Two Americanism medal winners were honored last Saturday when representatives of the Friendship Oak Chapter made available their award winning scrap books featuring Miss Martha Van Peski and Mrs. Florence Duffie, both of Bay St. Louis.

The meeting was held in the home of Mrs. Joe Williams

Pilet, an organizing member of the chapter and chairman of the Americanism and DAR Manual for Citizenship. Pilet complimented the medal winners for their continued services to the community and their willingness to assist those who wished to become naturalized citizens.

Nadine Stamm, artist, whose pencil sketch of the Friendship

Oak was used frequently throughout the press books, was highly complimentary of the chapter's cooperation with civic improvements.

A brief review of the book It Is Better In America by Patrick Mahony was read. This book won for the author an Americanism award from the National Society DAR.

It was said that Mahony's book helped to develop respect, love and pride for citizens of the United States. The book, also used as a travel guide, compares favorably the wonders of America. "Why go abroad before seeing the wonders of our own antiquity?" Mahony asks.

The DAR appointment calendar was given with the request that the date March 31 be circled in red. On that date in 1983 the Friendship Oak Chapter received its official charter with 13 organizing members. At this moment of triumph Mahony's book was also copyrighted.

"March 31 should be observed as a parade of patriotism, and individual members of the Friendship Oak Chapter should ask themselves what they can do to promote the objectives of the national society which include history, education, patriotism and also to perpetuate the memory and spirit of the men and women who achieved American Independence. "Actually," Pilet said, "our primary objective is to build responsible citizenship."

In a round table discussion the group expressed the feeling that adult education programs should be a priority.

Free Thanksgiving dinner offered today

A free Thanksgiving dinner will be offered at the American Legion Hall off Blue Meadow Road in Bay St. Louis on Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 24, from 11 a.m. - 2:30 p.m.

Hosted in recent years by the former owners of "Mr. C's Restaurant", the menu will include sliced turkey, dressing, mashed potatoes, gravy, vegetables, salad, roll, dessert and beverages.

"Bring the family, friends or just yourself in giving thanks to the great goodness God has put in America," said Beth Scarborough.

Gospel concert in park scheduled for Saturday

The Bay St. Louis Business Association and the City of Bay St. Louis are sponsoring a gospel choir concert from 2 to 5 p.m. in City Hall Park.

Four gospel groups and one from Bearington will be featured in the concert. The sponsors suggest that those attending bring a lawn chair and a picnic lunch. Coffee and soft drinks will be available but not food.

In case of rain the concert will be held in the Valencia C. Jones Gym on Old Spanish Trail.

THANKSGIVING DAY PERFORMER—Evy High School Glee Club will be granted a commendation from Bay Waveland Superintendent of Schools after a Dec. 1 ceremony honoring the student for musical accomplishment, which included a performance for the year's McDonald's All-American High School Band. McDonald's nominated for the honor by his director, Robert Gilmore III, and the school for the students who performed with the band in its annual competition of the Thanksgiving Day Parade in New York. The All-American High School Band put on a major competition for several schools in the area. (Courtesy of Bette)

UM 'Rebel Recipes' cookbook released for holiday gift giving

Culminating four years of preparation, 'Rebel Recipes'—a collection of favorite dishes submitted by alumni, students and friends of The University of Mississippi—is available just in time for holiday menu making and gift giving.

The Ole Miss home economics faculty collected and tested the cookbook's recipes, submitted from across America and even some foreign countries where alumni reside. Coordinated by Dr. Jeanette Phillips, department chair, their hours of research have been packed into some 700 pages of over 900 delectable dishes and wrapped in an attractive cover featuring the famous Ole Miss landmark, the historic white-columned Lyceum.

Dr. Phillips said she and her colleagues decided to compile an Ole Miss cookbook because so many people had requested it and because many other universities, especially in the Southeast, have published one. "We felt we owed it to our friends and our alumni," she said.

The project has taken many hours of work, but Dr. Phillips thinks it will pay off in the pleasure they hope the cookbook will give to those who use it.

Profits from the sale of the cookbook will be used to support the educational objectives of the Ole Miss Department of Home Economics.

'Rebel Recipes' should soon be available at many bookstores and specialty shops for $12.95. Mail orders, requiring an additional $2 for postage and handling, may be placed through The Department of Home Economics, Meek Hall, University, MS 38677, (601) 232-7371.

McPhail to address MUW scholars banquet

Scholars' Day participants at Mississippi University for Women will have an opportunity to hear the chairman of the Mississippi Republican Party during the annual program which allows top students an opportunity to compete for major university scholarships.

MUW alumna Evelyn McPhail, a leader in Republican Party politics for a number of years, will be the speaker at the Scholars' Day banquet Dec. 1.

She will address students who will be competing for Centennial and University scholarships, the most prestigious of the academic awards extended by MUW. Scholarship interviews will be held Dec. 2.

McPhail, a resident of Bay St.

Louis, was elected chairman of the Mississippi Republican Party in 1987. In 1988, she was re-elected to an additional four-year term. Previously, she served as Mississippi's Republican National Committeewoman for seven years.

She was a delegate to the Republican National Convention this year and served as delegation chairman for Mississippi.

McPhail is general manager of the Fairway Villa Resort in Diamondhead and is a real estate agent in that same area. She is director of community services for the Diamondhead Corporation. She also served as associate director of the Governor's Emergency Council and directed the liaison office for the governor and NASA's Mississippi Test Facility.

"Scholars' Day provides an opportunity for students with ACT scores of 25 and above to come to MUW to see what we have to offer and to compete for major scholarship dollars.

Scholars' Day has been very successful in the past. About 90 percent of those students who attend MUW will enroll at MUW," said Teresa Thompson, interim director of admissions.

Students interested in attending Dec. 1-2 should contact the MUW Office of Admissions, toll-free in Mississippi, at 1-800-247-0758.

Ladner, Sellier complete law enforcement course

BY DENA BISNETTE

Two local law enforcement officers, Leo Ladner and David Sellier, have completed basic law enforcement training at the Harrison County Sheriff's Department-University of Southern Mississippi/Gulf Coast Law Enforcement Training Academy in Long Beach.

Ladner, a deputy with the Hancock County Sheriff's Department, and Sellier, a Bay St. Louis policeman, graduated Nov. 11 from the nine-week course.

Ladner explained that a recently enacted law requires that all law enforcement officers be academy graduates.

"I've been in law enforcement for 16 years. I've been a deputy since the 1950s; I started after I finished high school at Pass Christian," he explained.

He added that when he started the nine-week course, he found among the 23 students many other lawmen who, like himself and Sellier, had already been working for a number of years.

"I had kind of expected to be surrounded by kids, but there were only a couple of men under 25 there. I felt real good. There was one old fellow who turned 60 right after we graduated," the 52-year-old Ladner said.

Hunter safety course offered

The Hancock County Lawmen's Association will sponsor a hunter safety course Dec. 6, 8 and 9 at the Bay St. Louis-Hancock County Library on US-90.

Instructor Antoine J. Boyd will teach the course from 6:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. each night. Attendance at all three sessions is required for certification.

A minimum of 10 students is needed for the class, which is required before anyone born on or before Jan. 1, 1972, can obtain a hunting license.

Topics to be discussed include early and black powder firearms, modern firearms, archery, survival, first aid, wildlife management and identification, home firearms safety, field safety and hunter ethics.

For more information, contact Antoine at 467-5108.

Jennings attends seminar

William Jennings of Bay St. Louis attended the Seminar for High School Computer Science Teachers presented by the University of Southern Mississippi Computer Science Department Nov. 12.

Keynote speaker for the seminar was Dr. Nell Dale of the University of Texas at Austin. Dale, a national figure in computer science education and the author of several highly acclaimed computer science texts, shared his thoughts concerning the teaching of computer programming and the future role of high school computer science teachers.

Jennings is a teacher at St. Stanislaus.

BUSINESS CLUB SPEAKER—James Ginn, senior vice president of Hancock Bank as well as regional manager for Hancock and Pearl River counties, was the recent guest speaker for the Bay Senior High Business Club. Ginn spoke on "How to Enter the Field of Banking." The club, sponsored by Freda Cameron, business teacher, strives to increase student interest in the field of business.

Singleton named O'Brian candidate

LaWanda Singleton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Huey P. Singleton, has been selected as the 1989 Hugh O'Brian Youth Foundation candidate from Pass Christian High School. She will attend the Mississippi Youth Leadership Seminar in the spring of 1989 in Jackson.

The purpose of the Hugh O'Brian Youth Foundation is to seek out, recognize, and reward leadership potential in high school sophomores. The program brings a select group of high school sophomores with leadership qualities together with a group of distinguished leaders in business, science, education, government, and the professions, and lets the two interact.

Annual leadership seminars at the state and international levels take the form of intense but informal discussions aimed at giving the young student a straightforward view of what the world is all about.

At Pass Christian High School, Singleton is Student Council secretary and home-room president. She is a member of the French Club, Science Club, Flag Corps and track team, where she was selected Most Valuable Player. She was a sophomore homecoming maid, Freshman Class favorite and 1988 Valentine Queen.

Bay netters' season opens

BY SHENEA' BELL
Bay High School

The Bay High Tigers and Lady Tigers, under the direction of Michael Ladner, opened the 1988-89 basketball season on Tuesday, Nov. 15 with losses at home to the d'Iberville Warriors.

The three-game contest got underway when the junior varsity Tigers dropped a 35-46 decision to the d'Iberville Warriors.

Calvin Thigpen led Bay High with 11 points and Mike Scharp scored a total of 10 points.

D'Iberville was led by Stacy

Druewry scoring 15 points. The Lady Tigers dropped their first game of the season to d'Iberville, 57-25. Bay High, having trouble offensively, was outscored in each quarter by d'Iberville. D'Iberville is coming off a state tournament appearance from 1987-88 basketball season.

Bay High was led by Kinta Ladner with eight points and five rebounds, Deborah Deloach chipped in five points. While Tunisia McKay added 12 rebounds and two points.

Also contributing to continued effort was Stacey Shepard with four points along with Kecia Walker, Dedra McGowan and Vida Laheaus putting in a total of two points each.

D'Iberville was lead by three double figure players, Angel Foster with 13 points and Sue Hoglen and Angie Miller with 11 points each.

Following the girls' game, the varsity Tigers dropped 67-55 decision. In the first quarter, Bay High scored 17 points to the Warriors' 14 points. However, the Warriors outscored the Tigers in the second quarter 26-7 to create a 40-24 halftime deficit.

During the third quarter the Tigers outscored the Warriors 18-12 to cut the Warriors lead 52-42. Both teams played evenly throughout the 4th quarter and final period of the game but the Tigers showed no significant defense to keep the Warriors from gaining points. In return, the Tigers received their first loss of the season.

Bay High was led by Michael Necessaire scoring 20 points, seven rebounds and seven assists. Also adding in the Tiger effort was Cedric Walker with 10 points and eight rebounds, Freddy Necessaire with eight points and nine rebounds, and Will Seymour with seven points.

"I think that both the boys and girls were nervous for the opening games and neither played up to their potential," stated Ladner.

"We're just glad to get the season started and we're looking forward to better things from both teams as the year progresses," he said.

Ladner also hopes that the Tiger fans support the teams as they improve throughout the season.

Rocks edge St. Martin for first district win

The St. Stanislaus Rock-A-Chaw basketball team upped its record to 5-1 with a close 51-49 decision over the visiting St. Martin Yellow Jackets in basketball action Tuesday evening.

St. Martin mounted a furious comeback, outscoring the Rocks 21-10 in the final period. With under a minute to play, the Yellow Jackets tied the score at 49-49.

The Rocks scored their final basket on an inside play by Chad Matthews, and played tough defense to not allow St. Martin a final shot at the goal.

Leading the Rocks in scoring were Chris Perrone with 19 points, followed by Shannon Garrett with 18 points. Good rebounding by Craig Sweeney, Perrone, and Garrett kept the Rocks in control throughout the contest.

Midway into the third quarter, SSC led by as many as 13 points but the determined St. Martin squad fought back and closed to within five points with under three minutes left to play.

"Our kids showed a lot of guts and character in this ballgame," said SSC coach Chuck Genin. "We've been involved in several close games this season, and it's important that we know how to win."

The Rocks finished second in the HNC tournament, defeating Pass High and Bay High, but losing to HNC by two points in the finals.

The Rocks resume play next Tuesday, November 29 when they travel to Long Beach.

MSU vs Ole Miss Saturday in Jackson

State bragging rights are on the line at Mississippi Veterans Memorial Stadium Saturday when Mississippi State engages in-state SEC foe Mississippi in the battle for the Golden Egg Trophy.

Mississippi State, 1-9 overall and 0-6 in the SEC, came up just short in a second half comeback effort last weekend at Tulane, bowing to the Green Wave 27-22 in the Louisiana Superdome.

Mississippi, 4-6 overall and 2-4 in the SEC, enjoyed an open date weekend last week after dropping a 20-12 decision to Tennessee Nov. 12 in Oxford, Miss. Some 35,40,000 fans are expected to be on hand for the season finale for both teams.

Bay High takes one win in HNC hoop tournament

BAY ST. LOUIS

BHHS Correspondent

The Bay Senior High Tigers and Lady Tigers participated in the Hancock North Central East Annual Round Robin Tournament on November 17, 18 and 19. The tournament lead the Tigers to one victory and the Lady Tigers to two close contests.

On Thursday, November 17, the Lady Tigers opened the tournament against the D'Iberville Lady Warriors with a 56-15 loss. Bay High was led by Kinta Ladner and Debra Deloach, scoring four points each and Kecia Walker chipped in three points. While D'Iberville placed three ladies in double figures, Angel Foster lead the way with 17 points.

THURSDAY NIGHT

In the Thursday night boys' contest, Bay High lost to St. Stanislaus, 67-66. In the first quarter SSC had a 16-14 edge and maintained that lead at halftime with a 39-34 margin.

In the third quarter the Tigers came out strong, outscoring the Rocks 18-9 to take a 52-48 lead.

The Rock-A-Chaws came back with a strong fourth quarter to win the game.

Cedric Walker lead the way with an outstanding effort of 30 points and 13 rebounds. Micah Necease pitched in 12 points, 8 rebounds and 7 assists.

Also contributing to the Tiger effort were Senior Freddie Necease with 11 rebounds, Will Seymour with 8 points and David Weems with 6 points.

St. Stanislaus placed four people in double figures, including Chris Perrone with 20 points, Shannon Garret had 16 points and Cedric Smith contributed 13.

"We lost to a very good basketball team and overall, we played a good game," stated Ladner.

FRIDAY NIGHT

In a Friday night Lady Tiger contest, the girls dropped a hard-fought contest to the Lady Hawks of North Central, 47-37.

Ladner stated, "The girls came out and played hard-nose defense with an outstanding effort on the boards."

Bay High was led by Tunisia McKay scoring 17 points and 14 caroms. Ladner commented, "Tunisia played one of the better games of her career."

Helping McKay was Dedra McGowan with 7 points and three steals. Kinta Ladner added 6 points.

Hancock North Central was led by tournament MVP Haleigh Moran with 18 points and 7 caroms, Jill Forrest added 9 points and 10 boards.

Friday's Tiger-Hawk contest went underway with the Tigers taking a two-point win over the Hawks. The Tigers had a balanced scoring attack with four players ranging in double figures to net their 83-81 win.

Micah Necease hit 26 points and 9 assists. Freddie Necease added 18 points and 9 caroms, and Cedric Walker added 17 points and 8 rebounds.

David Weems contributed 11 points to the Tiger win— nine of which were three-pointers and two free throws with 34 seconds left on the clock. With the game tied at 81-81, M. Necease hit the game winning shot with six seconds remaining.

The Hawks were led by tournament MVP Chervin Ladner with 29 points and Bobby Louis with 17 points with 9 rebounds. Derek Peterson contributed 12 points and Terrance Goff, 11 points.

Following this victory the Tigers dropped a 66-56 contest to the Pass High Pirates.

Leading the way for the Tigers was Cedric Walker with 22 points and 8 caroms, while M. Necease shot 10 points and made 6 assists.

Also helping the Tiger effort was Will Seymour with 6 points; Freddie Necease and Mike Sharp with 5 points, and David Weems and Bruce Jones adding four points each.

Two Bay High netters, Cedric Walker and Micah Necease, were selected to the All-Tournament team. Lady Tiger Dedra McGowan also received the same honor.

Lifetime sportsman license offered Mississippi hunters

For the first time, Mississippi sportsmen will be able to purchase a lifetime hunting and fishing license, according to the Department of Wildlife Conservation.

"We wanted to offer hunters and fishermen in our state the option of buying a one-time license, something of real value and convenience to them," said Vernon Bevill, executive director of the wildlife agency. "The Lifetime Sportsman License is a great deal, because while it saves the sportsman money and the time and trouble of annual renewals and purchases, it also helps our wildlife programs."

"The money from all lifetime license purchases will go into a special Wildlife Endowment Fund. We'll use only the interest from that fund to help pay for wildlife management, enforcement, research and education," Bevill said.

Three types of the new licenses are available: the Lifetime Sportsman License for $500, plus a $25 administrative fee; the Youth Lifetime Sportsman License (under 16 years of age) for $200; and the Gold Lifetime Sportsman License for $1,000. All lifetime licenses are available only through the Jackson office of the Department of Wildlife Conservation.

The new lifetime licenses allow holders to fish and hunt during any legal season and to take any game, except waterfowl, without buying additional licenses or permits. Waterfowl hunters must still purchase both state and federal waterfowl stamps.

Only Mississippi residents can purchase a lifetime license. However, if you buy a lifetime license and later move from the state, your license will be valid if you come back to Mississippi to hunt and fish.

"I really can't think of a better investment in Mississippi's wildlife than buying one of these special licenses. Sportsmen will be helping guarantee generations of hunting and fishing opportunities. And there isn't a better gift for someone who loves to hunt and fish in Mississippi or for some young person learning to love it too," Bevill said.

For more information about Lifetime Sportsman Licenses, contact the Mississippi Department of Wildlife Conservation at P.O. Box 451, Jackson, MS 39205-0451, or call (601) 961-5300.

SSC soccer team posts wins over Long Beach, BHS

The St. Stanislaus Rock-A-Chaw Soccer team has opened its 1988-89 season with two wins against excellent opponents.

On Thursday, November 17, the Rocks hosted Long Beach. SSC entered the contest with only five days of practice under new head coach Mark Foley.

Boosted by the Junior Varsity's 1-0 victory over the Bearcats, the SSC Varsity defeated Long Beach 2-1.

Long Beach took a 1-0 lead on a goal by Tim Hammons with 35:40 gone in the first half. SSC came back with a goal by right wing David Eckert, assisted by Terry LeBourgeois after 18:40 elapsed in the second half.

SSC scored its second goal by forward Scott Heitzmann on an unassisted play with 38:35 elapsed in the second half to clinch the victory.

St. Stanislaus traveled to Bay High on Monday, November 22 to clash with their cross-town rivals.

SSC defeated the Tigers in the opening JV contest by a score of 8-0. Goals were scored by Sandy Parker, Jesse Hayes, John Rutherford (2), Wade Weidmann (2), and Jonathan Compreatte. The Rocks had 30 shots at the Bay High goal, while the Tigers could manage only one shot attempt during the game.

The varsity contest went into overtime, as the score was knotted 1-1 at the end of regulation play. The only goal of the first half was scored by Scott Heitzmann assisted by Jason Reitmeyer.

The second half remained close all the way, with the ball exchanging hands many times. The only goal of the half was scored by Bay High's Scott Bolina.

The 1-1 deadlock forced two overtime periods of play. SSC scored two unanswered goals to secure the win. Brian Brooks of SSC scored the first goal, while Scott Heitzmann followed with his second goal of the evening.

SSC finished this overtime play with a 3-1 decision to earn a 2-0 season record. The next contest for the Rock-A-Chaws will be against Gulfport on Friday, December 2.

BHS Soccer Team anticipates stiff Division competition

By TOMMY BERGERON
BHS Correspondent

The Bay High Soccer team is looking forward to the 1988-89 season as they prepare for stiff competition in their division. Coach Kathy Edwards, in her third year at Bay High, coached the Tigers to a 2-9 record last season and looks to improve this one.

Edwards, who has been very successful in coaching in the girls' recreational ranks, has never lead the Tigers in the quest for a state title, simply because the MHSAA has never sponsored a tournament for a state championship. This year, though, they voted to host a state tournament to determine a champion in each division as well as a state champion.

The Tigers compete in Division 8, which is comprised of Long Beach Gulfport, St. John and arch-rival St. Stanislaus. The Harrison Central Red Rebels, who are tough almost every year, are also in the Tigers' division. Edwards stated that all teams in the division are tough, but Harrison Central is the team to beat.

The Tigers recently selected seniors Joel Duncan and Douglas Rhodes as team captains. They will lead an outstanding group of players such as junior Blane Feuerstein, junior Kevin Edwards, senior Randy Ellis, senior Ted Bilbo, and junior goalie Mac Murphree.

Rounding out the starting line-up are seniors John Favre, Chad Bordes, Jose Hernandez and Ricardo Muriel. Sophomore Scott Barnes also gets the nod at a starting position.

Other Tiger players include seniors Jenny Proulx, Amy

Oliver and Kyle LaFontaine; juniors Shane Nixon and Jason Schneider; and sophomore Jason Ellington.

Newcomers to the team are Patty Weems, Stacey Feuerstein, Brian Necessaire, and Philip Allison.

Soccer team members must meet strict standards to qualify for the team. Edwards requires teamwork, a dedication to one's individual abilities as well as academic success.

"It is a basic belief of mine that a student's first obligation is to his studies," stated Edwards.

To promote that belief study halls for soccer players have been scheduled during the regular season. Presently, 45 percent of the Tiger soccer team is on the honor roll.

Soccer members encourage all fans to support them in their quest for a successful season.

Fisheries hearing scheduled

Fishermen concerned about the proposed length limit and daily bag limits on Sardis Reservoir in northern Mississippi and in other areas of the state will want to be at a special public hearing on Tuesday, Dec. 13.

The hearing will be held at the Tallahatchie Valley Electric Power Association on Hwy. 6 and Interstate 55 at Batesville. The meeting will get underway at 7 p.m.

Bay Youth Soccer fall mini-tournament play

Kay Area Youth Soccer has just finished the fall season with a series of mini-tournaments for the Under-8, Under-10 and Under-12 age groups. Fortunately the rainy weather did not interfere with the playing of the games with most of the rain coming after the tournament.

UNDER 12

The Hurricanes sponsored by The Bay-Waveland Jaycees, were the winners in the mini-tournament Sunday.

The Hurricanes, coached by Ronnie LaFontaine and Tim Kingston, defeated McDonald Realty in the opener 3-0 to advance into the semi-finals.

In a tough defensive battle, the Hurricanes defeated the Burger King Whoppers 1-0. In the final game of the tournament the Hurricanes once again shutout McDonald Realty 4-0 to win the championship.

The Hurricanes finished the season undefeated and are now preparing for the Spring season. LaFontaine stated that "great team effort was the key to a successful season."

"Wali Schbazz, Robby Lumpkin, Timothy Kingston, Brooks Quinlan, and Derrick Saucier were outstanding offensive players. Ryan LaFontaine, Jared Freeman, Jonathan Favre, Tommy Rutherford, Steve Scianca, Billy Powell, Mike Hannah, Jay Knight, and Nick Saucier led the defense, which did not allow a goal throughout the tournament."

The Burger King Whoppers, coached by Leo Laurent, lost their first game to the Hurricanes, 1-0. In the second game, McDonald Realty defeated the Whoppers, 2-1.

Laurent stated the team performed well offensively and defensively. Joshua Wilson, Mike Sanders and Leo Laurent moved the ball well and half-backs John Guy, Vincent Smith and Todd White did a fine job; Fullbacks John Rhoads, Jeremy Moore, Richard Donaghay and sweeper Sean Ziegler played well defensively, according to Laurent.

Also performing well were goalie Tommy March and William Pitcairn and Matthew Dillenkoffer.

McDonald Realty goals were scored by Andrew Harris and Jeremy Comprettta. "All of our players played great," according to head coach Jody Gex. "They should all be commended for their fine effort."

UNDER 10

In under 10 play, Coach Demboski's Gulf Coast Fabrication Jaguar team won the post-fall season tournament held November 19, 1988. The team was undefeated in all games of the day. In the first game against "Bad Blues" the score was 2-1, with goals scored by Cory Ray and Cooper Ladner.

The Jaguars went on to win over the "Bay Rats" by 1-0. That goal was made by Kippy Chamberlain. The next team to play the Jaguars was a very strong U-10 girls team coached by Bernard Tusa.

The game ended in a shoot-out which the Jaguars won 2-1.

Goals were scored by Ty McMichael and Cory Ray. The final game of the day was against the Rotary Falcons coached by Richard Flowers which ended after a rain delay by a score of 2-1. Goals were made by Cooper Ladner and Ty McMichael.

The four winning games were a team effort. The goals were made possible by fine passing from the offense team members: Justin Boudouin, Cooper Ladner, Kippy Chamberlain, Ty McMichael, and Cory Ray.

Exceptional defensive play was turned in from Brandon Everett, Bobby Hansen, Seth Johnson, and Kyle Mann. Honore Hazeur stopped several thrusts by the opponents with his fine play as goalkeeper.

Flowers' Rotary Falcons were runners-up in the post-fall season with four wins and two losses for the tournament.

ON ETV

BUSH INHABITANTS

Ranging from misty and mysterious rain forests to crackling dry eucalyptus glades, Australia's forests are the dwellings of rock-climbing fishy, insect-eating plants and man-eating crocodiles.

"Nature" at 7 p.m., Sunday, November 27, on Mississippi ETV, introduces the dense rain forest region where the struggle for life is not for water, but for light. The unique animals and plants that live here give Australia its distinctive character.

"The Making of the Bush" studies the large, noisy, parrot-like cockatoo; a colorful company of parakeets; the "laughing jackasses," or kookaburras; and the world-famous koala bears.

Clerk, Board of Supervisors
By: Terry E. Guenard, D.C.

Flowers complimented all of the Falcons on their fine play throughout the day's games but especially to the improved play by Michael Gilmore, Oliver Arce, Patrick Kimbrell, and Ryan Rupp.

"The team showed fine improvement throughout the day with one exhausting game after another and little to no rest between each game. All the teams did a fine job and need to be congratulated," stated Flowers.

UNDER 8

In Under 8 play, Coach Steve Carver's Sweepers finished the post-fall season in first place undefeated. Coach Christine Ross' Raiders finished in second place as the tournament runner-up after winning all of the games in the loser's bracket of the double elimination tournament.

Congratulations to all of the coaches and all of the players of each team for a fine fall season and tournament. The BAYS spring season will begin the second week in January.

Anyone not registered for the 1988-1989 soccer season who wishes to play in the spring season must be registered before December 31, 1988, in order to be considered. To register, or for information, contact the BAYS registrar, Richard Flowers at 467-0474.

PRIZE CATCH—Jo Boudreaux of 912 Spanish Acres, Bay St. Louis, takes a pleased look at the size of a flounder she caught off the Waveland Municipal Pier. The 22-and-1/2-inch fish weighed in at five pounds, four ounces. Boudreaux caught it on 20-pound test monofilament using a minnow for bait. She said the fish was the second-biggest flounder she had ever caught, ranking below a six-pounder she hooked a couple of years ago. (Echo staff photo by Dena Bisnette)

Marriages jeopardized during hunting season

Husbands, so caught up in the thrill of the hunt, may fail to realize the strain their extended absences could be having on their marriages.

Men who become engrossed in athletics, their jobs, hunting or similar distractions may not realize the extent of their wives' unhappiness.

Norine Barnes, family and child development specialist with the Mississippi Cooperative Extension Service, said most men who hunt have been hunters since childhood and never thought of giving the sport up for marriage.

"Husbands may think, 'My wife knew I was like this when she married me. Why should I change now?'" Barnes said. "He may also feel justified in the need for recreational time and not actually consider it time away from the wife and kids."

Wives, on the other hand, may feel isolated and deserted with most of the family responsibilities left on their shoulders, Barnes said.

They may develop a martyr's complex as they alone deal with children, home maintenance and family social responsibilities. This attitude can occur when either spouse is absent a majority of the time, she said.

"Jealous feelings can grow if wives believe the husband is more interested in his friends and his hobby than he is (interested in) her," Barnes said. "A wife may fear she is losing her husband to his friends and hobby."

The family specialist said building resentment can form a psychological wedge, making physical signs of affection more difficult.

"A husband may not realize his wife resents his time away from her unless she states her feelings," Barnes said. "Those feelings always need to be expressed in positive, non-threatening ways. Tell him how you feel, but don't use accusations and put him on the defensive."

Open communication between husbands and wives is essential for working through any negative feelings. Both may be very defensive, but expressing feelings can lead to agreeable compromises.

Barnes said couples should improve the quality of the time they actually spend together. Wives should consider learning how to hunt or develop other hobbies of their own.

"Usually the best solution will be some sort of compromise," Barnes said. Solving the problem means reducing the amount of negative time in their home life to zero.

Conference focuses on Wildlife future

The effects of socioeconomic changes on our environment and how those changes will necessitate new management approaches in the future were the underlying theme during the 42nd annual conference of the Southeastern Association of Fish and Wildlife Agencies.

Held at Hilton Head Island, S.C., over 1,000 representatives from 17 southeastern states met to discuss new management techniques and key issues surrounding the region's fish and wildlife resources. Fish and wildlife managers established goals and objectives to meet socioeconomic changes.

The directors spent time looking at regional and national trends in license sales by user groups," explained Vernon Bevill, executive director of the Mississippi Department of Wildlife Conservation.

"We all realize that in the future we simply must do a better job of long-range forecasting of program emphases and budget planning to better meet the needs of those groups that use our products and services."

Giant animated dinosaurs to return to New Orleans

Dr. Robert Thomas, Executive Director of the Louisiana Nature and Science Center announced today to open a second exhibit of life-like dinosaurs on December 10. This new exhibit, also called Dimation, features the most accurate moving dinosaur ever made. Natural settings, new media and interactive activities, a model of the non-dinosaur Dimetrodon, a full-size Tyrannosaurus rex leg, specimens of fossils, and interpretive materials will add greater depth to this look back in time. "This exhibit will foster an understanding of long lost ecosystems, and how major environmental changes can affect all of us now and in future generations," states Dr. Thomas. This year Tyrannosaurus Rex, Pachycephalosaurus, Triceratops, Stegosaurus, Apatosaurus (formerly called Brontosaurus), baby Apatosaurus, Parasaurolophus and Pteranodon will all prowl the jungles, plains and swamps of the exhibit.

The dinosaurs were designed by Dimation International of San Juan Capistrano, California. A computerized pneumatic system allows head, tail, and foot movements, jaw opening, eye blinking and sound effects. The climate controlled exhibit site will be located on the second floor of the Jackson Brewery Marketplace at 412 N. Peters Street in the French Quarter.

The exhibit will be open from noon on December 10th through May 31, 1989. Exhibit hours will be from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Thursday, 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. Friday and Saturday and 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. on Sunday. Admission, which includes 9% tax is $4.50 for adults, $3.50 for senior citizens and $2.50 for children (2-17). Again this year school groups, clubs, and employee organizations are encouraged to pre-schedule their visits to the Dimation exhibit.

The Louisiana Nature and Science Center is excited about the opportunity to bring a new dinosaur exhibit to the people of New Orleans.

Enter our WEEKLY FOOTBALL CONTEST and win $50.00 if you have the most correct picks for the week. The Sea Coast Echo and the local businesses appearing on this page will be sponsoring the contest for the next 13 weeks. Each week's winner will receive $50.00 and will be announced in the next issue.

Locate the games listed in each advertiser's space and circle the team you think will win.

Fill in the entry form completely and mail (or bring it to the newspaper office) the entire contest sheet. All entries must be received by 5 p.m. Friday.

Only one entry per person per week. Employees of this publication and its advertisers are not eligible.

All entries must be received on the original newspaper form. Photo copies are not eligible.

Winners will be notified by telephone and the names of the winners will be published in this newspaper.
